

NITIN AWASTHI

Nitin Awasthi is a R&D Specialist with over 12 years of experience in the cutting-edge technologies.

He has a passion for Technology and Automation. During his college days, he had devised many innovative projects, which won awards across the country.

After his graduation in Electronics & Communication Engineering from Bangalore University, he has worked in reputed organizations delivering mission-critical solutions. He is currently Founder-Director at Apsis Solutions, an organization dedicated to Training and Technology development.

Nitin Awasthi has contributed to several successes in the organizations he has worked.

They include:

- Design and development of an i860-64Bit Processor clone.
- Data Acquisition Systems for Indian Army
- Bomb Release Triggering Mechanism for Jaguar Planes –Indian Airforce
- Satellite Phones
- Security Systems
- Attendance Monitoring devices
- GPS and GPRS based Fleet Management System
- Patrol Monitoring System
- RFID based solutions.
- 3G Solutions

His work experience spans in both start-ups and MNCs. He has worked for established companies like Agere Systems, LSI Logic, Infineon and startups like U&I System Design Ltd, Mobiapps India Pvt Ltd etc. His work took him to a lot of technology destinations like Russia, Germany and United Kingdom.

Nitin Awasthi, a certified Microchip trainer, is always looking for innovative methods to implement his projects. He holds a patent in the communication field, with several patents pending and has published an International paper on Wireless USB Technology also. The Mantra of his life is to "Innovate Throughout". This has lead him to practice the same in his organization. Therefore Apsis Solutions also belives in "INNOVATING THROUGHOUT".

